

WALKING WISELY

Introduction

Each year we look ahead with high hopes about what we'll accomplish and experience in the New Year. But what if that's the wrong focus? What if the right focus isn't "what," but "who?"

Discussion Questions

1. What's the best/worst part of a road trip for you?
2. What do you want to LEAVE behind and not take with you on your road trip into the new year?
3. What do you want to do better in the new year?
4. Read Proverbs 13:20: Whoever walks with the wise becomes wise, but the companion of fools will suffer harm.
5. WHO is going to help you develop wisdom this year?
6. Who are the fools you need to distance yourself (at least 6') from? You must choose someone NOT in your community group.
7. Seriously, you can't do the Christian walk alone. So who is The Who who's going to cheer for you?
8. How should you initiate that relationship, or turn up the frequency of your interactions? Ask the group for suggestions.

Moving Forward

There's always one more verse to focus on down here. But how about if YOU put the verse in this week? What's one verse you could focus on for 2021? No idea? Ask the group for suggestions! Ready to turn it up? Consider reading through the entire Bible in 2021! A whole bunch of Accessibles are doing it!
