

Introduction

When it comes to potentially polarizing topics, our posture, tone, and approach will tell others all they need to know about what's most important to us.

Discussion Questions

1. Disagreement about political issues can be costly. Have you experienced loss of relationship because of political differences?
2. Have you seen the church in our generation lose or gain influence in the culture because of politics?
3. Read *Philippians 3:20. What does it mean that our citizenship is in heaven? How does this impact your identity as a person? Is it easy or difficult to order your other identities below that of Christ-follower?
4. Read *Colossians 3:1. How would your daily mental state differ if you could truly “set your heart on things above?”
5. How much will the results of the next election impact your ability to love your spouse well? Lead your kids well? Serve your boss/clients/patients well?
6. Read *Philippians 2:5-8. How can the example of Christ apply to the example you set with regard to politics?
