THINK ABOUT THIS:

Jesus is called the light of the world. This series is a reminder that this whole life is about him. We once again go back to who Jesus is, and why that is important to constantly remind ourselves about. Let's look and see Jesus together this Christmas season. He truly is the light of the world!!!

Week One

Luke 2:8-10 NIV

"Let It Glow" Christmas Party

Week Two

Matthew 1:21-23 NIV

God is with us.

Week Three

Luke 8:2-20

Go see for yourself.

REMEMBER THIS

For to us a child is born, to us a son is given, and the government will be on his shoulders. And he will be called Wonderful Counselor, Mighty God, Everlasting Father, Prince of Peace.
Isaiah 9:6 NIV

DAILY CUES

Morning Time

Have you ever felt happy and sad at the same time? It's normal for people during the holidays to experience ups and downs: excited about the festivities while thinking about the potential pitfalls during. One morning try playing Christmas music before your family wakes up and make a point to check in and stay updated with how your teen is feeling at this time.

Their Time

It's the season of Christmas events! The next time your teen brings up getting involved, encourage your student to join in AND to invite their friends. These are great times for building relationships and lasting memories. By being encouraging and helpful it's a chance to give them tips, encourage inviting others, and following up for more conversation later.

Meal Time

Have you ever wonder what Jesus talked about at dinner with his disciples? What stories did they share and what jokes did they tell? Take some time to ask about some of your favorite holiday memories, especially any that remind you of the real reason for the season. What makes our Christmas special? Do we have any traditions or funny stories?

Bed Time

With all the excitement of the season, make sure to look out for times when things slow down a bit. As your student winds down for the day, be sure to ask your student about their day and the day ahead—don't forget that it's the end of the day, keep it simple! It's also a great time to ask if there's something you can do for them the next morning. Try asking what they'd like for breakfast!
