

PART 1: JESUS, TAKE THE WHEEL

Introduction

Here's to a new year and new adventures! After playing defense for the last couple of years, many of us are ready to ask and hope for God to do big things in our lives in 2022. But what if God actually has other plans for us? Are we willing to follow his plan, no matter how strange it seems?

Discussion Questions

1. What great adventure do you hope awaits you in the new year?
2. What one way God could help you become a better you this year?
3. Read 2 Kings 5:11. Have you ever wanted God to just “fix a spot” but he insisted on making you entirely new?
4. Read 2 Kings 5:12. God asked Naaman to do something simple, but humbling. How do you think it felt to be a great warrior and asked to do something so silly?
5. Has God ever asked you to do something humbling? Are there limits to what instructions from God you are willing to follow?
6. Read 2 Kings 5:13. Who in your life would be willing to speak words of truth to you and call out your pride?
7. Read 2 Kings 5:14. Why do you think God gave Naaman skin like a young boy instead of just restoring his skin to its aged, scarred, former state?
8. What if Naaman had believed in God, but not washed in the Jordan? Why do you think the washing mattered? What's a modern-day parallel for us as believers?
9. Rich said, “The size of your pride and the size of your God are directly proportional.” How does that apply in your life?
10. What is one small thing you can do in 2022 to make God big in your life?

Moving Forward

As we kick off the adventure that will be 2022, are you willing to let Jesus take the wheel? Surrendering your life to Him is so much more than asking Him to fix a problem or two. It's a complete takeover, and sometimes He might ask you to do something small, something silly, or something humbling. It's our hope that you'll take small steps of obedience that will demonstrate God's supremacy in your life.
